BEHIND THE LENS

Hey! Thank you so much for stopping by :) My name is Rebecca but everyone calls me Becky. I am married to most supportive man ever, Jerry.

When I was a kid, I remember seeing my brother and his girlfriend, who is now his wife, being so in love. They reminded me so much for all the romantic chick flicks. I loved watching them grow as a couple throughout the 15+ years they've been married and seeing them have a real life fairy tale story. I get that same feeling with my husband but also seeing it on wedding days is the best feeling! Watching the groom get emotional because he's seeing his future wife for the first time in her wedding dress is one of my favorite things! Every wedding is so different, different colors and different stories but the one thing that's always true is love in the air!

The other best part about my career is I get to work with my husband, Jerry. Teaching my husband my craft over the last couple years has been such a blessing and an honor.

Another reason why I absolutely love what I do is that I get to travel and see new places! Recently, I was able to see Zion National Park for the first time and explore Vegas for a bit! Zion was an absolute dream that it almost didn't feel real!

VIDEOGRAPHY F.A.Q

Q: What's included in the highlight Video ?

A: I like to tell couples that it's like a little movie trailer of your wedding day, short, sweet, and full of all the best moments! Instead of showing every single moment, it focuses on the highlights, the emotions, your vows, the reactions, and all the magic in between.

Q: Can I request a longer video?

A: You can absolutely request that! I do offer full ceremony plus speeches for an additional cost.

Q: How does music work and can I request a song?

A: Most popular songs are copyrighted, so we can't legally use them in your wedding film. Instead, I use beautiful, licensed music from professional artists, so your video still feels cinematic, emotional, and totally you!

“I have never connected with a stranger that I met on the internet like I have with this girl! The amount of pictures I got back from my engagement photoshoot was amazing. She was so amazing with my step daughter, and let her take some solo shots... which made her day. I cannot wait for my wedding. I already know I will be in love. She made sure I was happy with the location spots, poses, whatever the case was ! 10000/10 recommend Becky Lynn Photography!”
